PRAYER BURDENS

- The burden of the word released during the International Memorial Day Blending Conference regarding A Timely Word concerning the World Situation and the Lord's Recovery:
  - a. That the Lord's hand would follow His word and that the Lord's word would not return to Him void, but accomplish what He desires and prosper in the matter to which He sent it (Isa. 55:11)
  - b. That all the saints would persevere in prayer while discerning the signs of the times (Col. 4:2; Matt. 24:3; Luke 21:36)
  - c. That all the saints would see the spiritual vision of the throne of God as the center of God's administration throughout the universe and realize that God on the throne is behind the scene ruling over everyone and everything (Rev. 4:2; Dan. 4:25-26, 34b-35)
- The online church gospel meeting on Friday, June 5:
  - a. That all the saints of all ages would have the burden for the gospel and seize every opportunity for the speaking of the gospel during these uncertain times

MORNING WATCH

HWMR: *Crystallization-Study of the Epistles of 1 and 2 Peter and Jude

Week 3: *The Christian Life and Its Sufferings

Portions from Week 8- Day 2

Christ .... is our soul's Shepherd and Overseer in the resurrection life within us [v. 25]. Therefore, He is able to guide us and supply us with life that we may follow His model in His steps of suffering (v. 21)...Our soul is our inner being, our real person. Our Lord, as the Shepherd and Overseer of our soul, shepherds us by caring for the welfare of our inner being and by exercising His oversight over the condition of our real person.

Many times we speak of turning to the spirit, perhaps expecting that when we turn to the spirit everything will be all right. Actually, even after we turn to the spirit, many things may not be all right. From experience Peter knew to say that Christ is the Shepherd of our souls. Therefore, Peter does not tell us in 1 Peter 2:25 that Christ is the Shepherd of our spirit or of our body; He clearly says that He is the Shepherd of our souls.

This Epistle was written to Jewish Christians who were suffering much persecution. Apparently persecution is related to our body outwardly. Actually, persecution is aimed at the soul. Because it is our soul that suffers, it is our soul that needs the Lord's shepherding....It is our soul—our mind, our emotion, and our will—that needs the Lord as the Shepherd.

BELIEVING IN GOD'S FACT

Many people do not know what God's fact is. The Lord Jesus has died for all men on the cross; He has died for the whole world. This is God's fact. But how many people are saved? Only those who believe are saved. Since Christ has died for the whole world, is it inconsequential whether or not a person believes? Is one saved whether or not he believes? Is it the same whether or not one believes, since Christ has died for all and since this has become God's fact? This is the way many Christians think when they say that Christ is living within them. Christ is the Head and we are the Body. The way the Head feels, controls, manages, and takes responsibility should be the same way Christians feel, control, manage, and take responsibility. How many Christians today see that the Lord Jesus is the Head? Is it Christ who is feeling or we who are feeling? Is it Christ who is controlling or we who are controlling? Is it Christ who is managing or we who are managing? Is it Christ who is taking charge or we who are taking charge? What is our problem? The problem is that we do not have faith. - Excerpts from "The Overcoming Life", Chapter 7: Believing (part 2)
