The Believers (1) Key Statements

- I. The disciples of the Lord have the real presence of the Triune God as their exceeding joy to make them persons who are “Jesusly human”, those who are sweet, charming, and attractive to those whom they contact, without any deception or hypocrisy.
- II. The eternal life is the life of God with the divine nature, the Triune God is the structure of the New Testament, and God is a God who hides Himself—the hidden God.
- III. By our growth in the divine life in Christ as the living stone, we are being transformed into precious stones; through the process of transformation, the Triune God is being wrought into and structured together with us to the praise of the glory of His grace with which He graced us in the Beloved for us to become the New Jerusalem as the conclusion of the entire Bible and the good news to the entire universe.
- IV. Christ is the Bridegroom, the church as the bride of Christ must be a warrior to defeat God’s enemy, and through spiritual warfare God’s eternal purpose is completely accomplished.

The College Training (July 10–14) will continue at KPCC till this Tuesday. It is an opportunity for college students (or those of college age) to receive a heavenly vision, be equipped with the truth, grow in the experience of life, be perfected in the preaching of the gospel, and develop their character to become useful vessels for the building up of the Body of Christ.

MORNING WATCH

HWMR: 2026 International Chinese-Speaking Conference - Noah, Daniel, and Job - Patterns of Living an Overcoming Life on the Line of Life to Fulfill the Economy of God

WEEK 1: Living and Working according to the Vision of the Age to Change the Age

Portion from Days 2, 3 & 6:

All of God's redeemed, regenerated, sanctified, transformed, conformed, and glorified people will see God's face (Rev. 22:4). Seeing God transforms us (2 Cor. 3:18), because in seeing God we receive His element into us. As we receive God, a new element comes into us, and the old element is discharged. This metabolic process is transformation. To see God is to be transformed into the glorious image of Christ, the God-man. This makes us a part of God that we may express God in His life and represent Him in His authority. (Life-study of Job, pp. 151-152)

Christ the Redeemer and Savior is a building. Christ is not only God but a God-man; He is God built together with man...John 1:1 says that in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God. However, verse 14 says that the Word became flesh. The Word as God mingled Himself with humanity. This was a building. Verse 14 says that when Christ as the Word of God was incarnated in the flesh, He tabernacled among us. The incarnated Lord is a tabernacle, a building of the divine material mingled together with the human material. In Christ is divinity and humanity. His two natures are the materials, which are mingled together and built up as one. Christ as the Savior, who is God incarnated as a man, is the building, the mingling, of divinity with humanity, a building of God with man.

We must treasure the two spirits in Galatians—the divine Spirit as the aggregate of the divine blessing to us and the human spirit as the receiver, the container, the keeper, of the divine Spirit. Thus, we need to take care of our spirit, doing everything by exercising our spirit. Then we will experience the divine Spirit living in us, making His home in us, and transforming us. The divine Spirit lives in us to pray, to read the Bible, to speak God's word, to love our spouse, and to visit sinners for the preaching of the gospel. Such a living is the mingling of the processed Triune God with the regenerated tripartite man. This is the divine revelation in the New Testament as the answer to the sufferings of Job and to the great question concerning God's purpose in His creation of man and in His dealing with His chosen people. (Life-study of Job, pp. 69-70, 90)
