

Message Six—Study Questions

1. What is the distinction between the tabernacle church life and the temple church life, and why do we need to go on to the temple church life?
2. What does the Gospel of John reveal concerning the principle of life and the purpose of life to build up the church as the temple of God?
3. How do David and Solomon reveal Christ in two aspects for God's building of the church as the temple of God?
4. How can we take the way of enjoying Christ in the church as the temple of the living God?