

Message Seven—Study Questions

1. What is the intrinsic significance of cypress, cedar, and olive wood? Do you have the experience of each of these matters, and can you share something about each one in an experiential way?
2. Putting together Romans 11, John 15, and Luke 10, how can we have “oil and wine” to minister to people who have been inwardly wounded?
3. What is the intrinsic significance of the pillars of the temple being built of bronze and the capitals of the pillars having “nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work” and lilies and pomegranates?
4. What is the intrinsic significance of the stones of the temple?
5. What is your response to the vision of God’s building, which shows His heart’s desire for the building up of the church today as the temple of the living God?